

Administrator - Radiation Oncology Practice

Radiotherapy Clinics of Kentuckiana, LLC
an Affiliate of Physician Oncology Services, LP

Jeffersonville, Indiana (Louisville, Kentucky area)

Freestanding Radiation Therapy Center with a current staff of 15 employees, is seeking an experienced practice administrator with radiation oncology experience to lead this growing practice in the Southern Indiana, Northern Kentucky area. Position provides a unique opportunity for growth with a national provider of outpatient radiation oncology care.

Directs the daily operation of the Radiation Oncology Facility, this includes patient treatment, patient care, patient support, employee support/evaluation/management, budgetary planning and operations, strategic planning, marketing, and growth evaluation for the radiation oncology facility (personnel, equipment and physical layout).

The ideal candidate will have knowledge of radiation oncology, billing, community outreach, marketing, and functional knowledge of radiation oncology, equipment, also knowledge of federal, state, HIPPA, and Medicare standards, and excellent leadership, judgment, and communication skills.

- Bachelor Degree in management, business, radiation therapy, or health administration.
- Three years management experience required

While working closely with the center Physicians, this position will report to the President and CEO of Physician Oncology Services, LLC, (POS) located in Atlanta, GA. (www.Physicianoncology.com)

Competitive salary and benefits are offered, commensurate with experience and education.

For more information about this position please contact:

Barbara Landes
Physician Oncology Services, LP
53 Perimeter Center East – Suite 500
Atlanta, GA 30346
phone: 404-931-3897
e-mail: blandes@physicianoncology.com

Radiotherapy Clinics of Kentuckiana is an Equal Opportunity Employer.