

Paul Alan Williams

mysatro@aol.com

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Public Health Administration, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill. Concentration in Policy, Planning and Evaluation. Thesis on American national health insurance initiatives.

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill. Completed all requirements for triple major with English and Radio, Television and Motion Picture Studies.

SPECIAL INTERESTS

Strategic planning, certificate of need issues, new business development, data mining, benchmarking and legislative initiatives involving healthcare

HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCE

Thirty plus years in a variety of healthcare settings, including:

Physician practice administrator
Student health center director
Regional vice-president, emergency room staffing firm
Assistant administrator, acute care hospital

Representative responsibilities:

- Operations, including supervision of various departments
- Policy and procedure development
- Regulatory compliance
- Strategic planning and project development
- New business development
- Negotiation of professional service agreements
- Marketing, public relations and sponsorships
- Accreditation, quality assurance, surveys and benchmarking
- Liaison with key external professional organizations
- Grant application and fund management

AWARDS

Fellow, American College of Medical Practice Executives, MGMA

ADDITIONAL TRAINING

Certificate in Essentials of Business for Nonprofit Organizations, Wake Forest University
Certificate in Emergency Management and Homeland Security, UCLA, Awarded with Distinction

MEMBERSHIPS

American Society of Therapeutic Radiation Oncology (ASTRO)
Medical Group Management Association (MGMA)
Southern Association of Therapeutic Radiation Oncology (SATRO®)

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Founder, Director and Administrator, SATRO®, www.satro.org
Moderator, SATRO® Chat Room, 500+ Participants
Committee Member or Officer for AFROC, ASTRO, MGMA, NCMGM, SROA